Version Control – D197

Task 1: Version Control Using Git For GitLab

D197 - Version Control

Step A Screenshot

Below is a screenshot of the current repository graph in Gitlab after completing the steps in A:

- The attached screenshot shows the repository graph in GitLab post-creation of the "Working" branch.
- The graph showcases the initial commit and the initial project's addition.
- The "Working" branch is displayed, which confirms it's a successful creation.
